PRESS RELEASE

CONVEYANT SYSTEMS, INC. AND eTELEMETRY ANNOUNCE STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP

Santa Ana, California, DECEMBER 10, 2008 -- Conveyant Systems, Inc., the telecommunications industry leading supplier of PC-based Attendant Console applications, and eTelemetry, the leader in extracting business information from network activity, announced they have signed an Agreement for the resale and integration of their products.

Tim Kenyon, President of Conveyant Systems, stated, "Conveyant Systems is excited about the opportunities this partnership provides both companies as well as our end users. The integration of our well proven, well established products, provides our customers with the capabilities and reliability needed in 911 centers."

Kenyon also added, "The synergy created by this partnership enables us to deliver complex yet affordable solutions, primarily designed around Conveyant's offerings in 911 and emergency notification solutions and services, bringing seamless 911 notification to our customers in both traditional TDM and newer VoIP environments."

"Locate911-N's on-site notification and VoIP asset tracking technology is highly complementary to Conveyant's attendant consoles," said Shiblee Shiblee, eTelemetry's COO. "The strategic partnership between eTelemetry and Conveyant brings a more complete solution to the marketplace, enhancing E911 regulatory compliance and improving emergency response for Conveyant's customers."
